

Felicitation Programmed of Dr. Lata Gajbhiye and Principal's Address to new students

A two layered programme of felicitation of Dr. Lata Gajbhiye, HOD, History of Shrimati Binzani Mahila Mahavidyalaya on being awarded Ph.D. recently and address by the principal Paldhikar to st XI and B.A. I years students was organized on Saturday i.e. 9th August 2014 in the college. The subject of her thesis was 'A Historical Analysis of social and economical conditions of women during Peshwa-Era'

At the outset, principal Snehal Paldhikar addressed the st XI and B.A. I year students. She advised the students that they should inculcate qualities like Sincerity, Punctuality, humbleness and truthfulness in them she also insisted that liberty has its our responsibility and atudents should realize it well. Along with it, in her introductory remarks to the felicitation ceremony, She congratulated Dr. Lata Gajbhiye for the success she achieved and wished for her bright fuchee a head.

Prof. Anju Sharan on behalf of all the teaching staff lauded the efforts of Dr. Lata Gajbhiye to complete her thesis and empathized with the arduous attempts undertaken by her to reach to this juncture.

The key speaker Dr. Lata Gajbhiye unfolded the contents of her thesis and shed light on the social and economical conditions of women during Peshwa-Era'. The audiences present in the auditorium enjoyed her elaborations as the topic of her thesis was akin to the girl-students of the college. Dr. Lata Gajbhiye extended her gratitude towards the college.

The family members of Dr. Lata Gajbhiye were prominently present in the function.

Prof. Dr. Vaishali Somalkar, Deptt. Of History, conducted the proceeding while Dr. Hema Gokhale, HOD, Deptt of Sanskrit, prosposed a formal vote of thanks.

